

Day Fighter Aces of the Luftwaffe: The Elite Pilots Who Defended the Reich, 1939-42

By John Weal

The Luftwaffe's day fighter pilots were among the most skilled and courageous in history. During the early years of World War II, they dominated the skies over Europe, shooting down enemy aircraft at an astonishing rate. In this book, John Weal tells the stories of some of the most successful day fighter aces of the Luftwaffe, including Erich Hartmann, Gerhard Barkhorn, and Günther Rall.
