

Nurses Dirty Little Secret: The Truth About Nursing That No One Tells You

Nursing is a demanding profession, both physically and emotionally. Nurses work long hours, often on their feet for 12-hour shifts. They deal with difficult patients, stressful situations, and often have to make life-or-death decisions.

But despite the challenges, nursing is also a rewarding profession. Nurses have the opportunity to make a real difference in the lives of their patients. They provide comfort and care to those who are sick, injured, or dying. They help to bring new life into the world and they support families through difficult times.
