

Teachers in Autumn: A Timeless Story of Love, Loss, and Redemption

Synopsis

In the golden glow of autumn, a group of teachers at a rural high school find their lives intertwined in unexpected and life-changing ways.

Led by the enigmatic Mr. Harrison, a seasoned English teacher haunted by a tragic past, the teachers grapple with their own personal struggles and triumphs. There's Mrs. Patterson, the idealistic new literature teacher, who clashes with the school's conservative superintendent; Mr. Carter, the troubled art teacher struggling with depression; and Ms. Davis, the empathetic counselor who has dedicated her life to helping students.
